ATLANTA CHAPTER
MEETING THEME: Membership Promotion

The Holiday spirit truly resides with the Atlanta Chapter as we joined 5 other organizations at the annual Red & Green Scene. ASHRAE, USGBC, AIA, CMAA, IIDA, CSI all joined forces to celebrate. It was a memorable night as we ate and danced the night away at Opera in midtown Atlanta with 760 of our closest friends and colleagues. He had so many toys donated for the "Toys for Tots" program that the next morning the marines had to return to finish collecting all the gifts.

December marked another milestone as we hit our goal of raising 30% of our research promotion goal through the support of our generous members. Thanks to all the members that have contributed so far this year. We still have a long way to go, so please continue to think of ASHRAE when you are planning your charitable budgets for 2012.

In January we will have another brilliant speaker to kick off 2012. Mr. John Brantley will be providing an overview on Variable Refrigerant Flow (VRF) equipment and application. The meeting will start at 11:30 AM and is a one hour course. Lunch will be provided and the cost is $10 for members and $20 for non-members. To register for the event please go to our events page at <http://www.ashraeatlanta.org/Events>.

Our January meeting will have an emphasis on MEMBERSHIP. Even though we have had some rough economic times in the last few years our membership has remained faithful. We look forward to growing our membership as new members enter our industry. If you have any new recruits in your office, please encourage them to get involved in the Atlanta ASHRAE Chapter. If you would like more information on how to sign up associates, please contact our membership chair Samir Sheth @ ssheth@itsmarta.com or visit the membership webpage on our chapter site at <http://www.ashraeatlanta.org/Membership>.

We look forward to having the Atlanta Chapter represented well at the ASHRAE Winter Conference in Chicago from January 21th through January 25th. You can still sign up on the ASHRAE society website at the following address: <http://www.ashrae.org/events/page/Chicago2012Meeting>. Region IV (The region Atlanta is in) will be meeting on January 22nd for dinner. Please email me if you are interested in attending.

The chapter is also hosting an outing to Phillips arena to watch some college basketball. Please plan on attending the Boston College at Georgia Tech basketball game on Saturday, February 4th 2012 at 1 PM. Members who register through the ASHRAE website will receive a $5 group rate discount of the $30 ticket price.

I look forward to seeing you at our next chapter event.

Best Regards,

ASHRAE, AHR Expo Return to Chicago for 2012 Winter Conference

ATLANTA—Registration is open for ASHRAE's 2012 Winter Conference in Chicago where attendees have the chance to discuss and examine the latest topics in the building industry, such as high performing buildings and integrated design, as well as participate in technical tours; attend ASHRAE Learning Institute courses; earn professional credits; and obtain ASHRAE certifications.

The 2012 Winter Conference takes place Jan. 21-25 at the Palmer House Hilton. The International Air-Conditioning, Heating, Refrigerating Expo®, held in conjunction with the Winter Conference, will run Jan. 23-25. The Expo, www.ahrexpo.com, is held at the McCormick Place.

In keeping with ASHRAE's goal of continuing education the Conference offers over 200 Professional Development Hours, as well as Continuing Education Units, which can be applied toward a Professional Engineering license.

The technical program features more than 90 programs and 300 speakers addressing energy modeling applications; integrated design; healthcare, laboratories and data center applications, among others; operations and maintenance; high performance buildings; as well as refrigeration and systems and equipment sessions. Additionally, there is a new "mini-conference" on Installation, Operation & Maintenance of HVAC Systems built within the Technical Program. The O&M mini-conference is scheduled on Jan. 22-23. The full Technical Program, which will be announced later this month, offers the opportunity to earn a year's worth of PDHs, NY PDHs, AIA LUs and LEED AP credits.

The Chicago Virtual Conference is included with a paid Conference registration—comp and single day registration excluded—and includes on-demand access to all speakers' audio presentations synced to their presentations. Attendees and speakers can post comments on the presentations for a two-week period. Those not attending the Chicago Winter Conference in person may register for the Virtual Conference only. Register at www.ashrae.org/chicagovirtual.

Five Professional Development Seminars and 15 Short Courses are offered to help industry professionals stay current on HVAC technology, including how to apply the newest ASHRAE standards. The ASHRAE Learning Institute (ALI) is offering a new half-day short course on the basics of combined heating and power systems, as well as updates to the full-day professional development seminars focusing on Standards 62.1, Ventilation for Acceptable Indoor Air Quality, and 90.1,

Additionally, ASHRAE offers a special administration of all six certification examinations on Jan. 25: Building Energy Assessment Professional (BEAP), Building Energy Modeling Professional (BEMP), Commissioning Process Management Professional (CPMP), High-Performance Building Design Professional (HBDP), Healthcare Facility Design Professional (HFDP) and Operations & Performance Management Professional (OPMP). ASHRAE's certification program recognizes industry professionals who have mastered knowledge and skills reflecting best practices in certain aspects of building design and operations. More information on each certification can be found at www.ashrae.org/chicagoexams.

ASHRAE Conference technical tours include the North Central College Residential and Recreation Center, Loyola University Information Commons, the University of Chicago Mansueto Library and Rush University Medical Center Central Energy Plant.

To register and for complete Conference information, visit www.ashrae.org/chicago.

Chapter Information

How to Join ASHRAE?

Go to <http://www.ashraeatlanta.org/> to start the process, click “Membership” on the horizontal menu bar. On the pull down menu, click “Join”. Enter your email address in the box “Verify your E-mail status”. A prospective member will then be directed to enter his or her email information. The Fox Theater 1946 Water Chiller

The Fox Theater has been one of the landmarks of Atlanta since it opened eighty-two years ago. From the beginning, the theater has been a state-of-the-art facility when it relates to the HVAC system, which delivers cool air to the 250,000 square foot facility and its 4,678-seat auditorium. The Fox Theater was one of the first buildings in Atlanta to have air conditioning.

The original AC system used an evaporative coil to cool the air stream. The system was updated in 1946 with the addition of a brand new 300-ton water chiller manufactured by the Carrier Corporation. The new chiller was the most up to date technology from Carrier at the time.

This water chiller was really made to last. It remained in service until August of 2010 when a new water chiller took up the duties. The 1946 chiller remains in service as a backup to the new chiller.

The Fox Theater personnel are very fond of their HVAC system. When the chilled water system was upgraded in 2010 they had a funeral for the equipment that was being removed and a retirement announcement for the chiller. See the “Celebration of Life” announcement. The renovation was designed by Leppard, Johnson, & Associates and was installed by Mckenneys.

Celebration Of Life

August 25, 2010 at 11:00 AM

It is with heartfelt regret that Miss 1946 announces the departure of her close relatives, Bertha, "Big Red" 'Misty' Air Wash (all 1929-2010). Friends and family are invited to gather for a Celebration of Life for these long-time family members of the Fox Theatre and Miss 1946.

Bertha, "Big Red" and Misty enjoyed a close family relationship with Miss 1946. Collectively they had great compassion and generosity for others and would not rest until their guests were comfortable and content. As a family they all led a happy and free-wheeling lifestyle with an ardent love of water sports.

In memory of the dearly departed Miss 1946 has decided to enter into a well-deserved retirement phase however will make herself available should any needs arise.

A memorial service is scheduled for Wednesday August 25, 2010. Viewing of the departed will take place at 11:00 AM with services immediately following. Those planning to attend the 11:00 AM viewing should gather in the lobby in order to be escorted to Miss 1946.

In lieu of flowers the family has asked that each funeral service attendee bring a side dish to pass at a celebratory luncheon that will take place in the Grand Salon following the services. Main dish items will be provided. Remembrances will take place during the celebratory luncheon.
