AEDGs to Zero-Energy Buildings

Featured Speakers: Mr. Drew Crawley
ASHRAE Distinguished Lecturer
Bentley Systems

ATLANTA CHAPTER
MEETING THEME: Research Promotion

As we move into March, our chapter continues to thrive in 2012. We had another packed house for our February lunch meeting. Adam Bare (Associate Partner with Newcomb & Boyd), Greg Spiro (Georgia Tech Engineering), and Trevor Wolf (Georgia Tech Grad Student), shared their experiences and ongoing technologies used at the new Georgia Tech Clough Research Building on Campus. The team used several features in the design of the building that include; Demand Control Ventilation, Heat & Energy Recover, Outside Air Monitoring, Metering, Occupancy sensors, Natural Lighting, use of Variable Frequency Drives, and the use of Photovoltaics. They also are using people counters, building dashboards, and enhanced measuring to help evaluate and operate the systems. Through the continued commissioning process they will study the effects of these design features and try to determine way to continue to improve the efficiency of the building along with monitoring the current technologies. Thanks again to Newcomb & Boyd and Georgia Tech for giving us a behind the scene look into their building.

We also had a great time attending the Sweetwater Brewery Tour at the end of February. Thanks to Mark Dahir for setting up the tour and the fun.

This month we have Mr. Drew Crowley, an ASHRAE distinguished lecturer, will be speaking to the chapter on Advanced Energy Design Guides. He will provide an overview at lunch and then get into a more in depth discussion in an afternoon educational seminar. ASHRAE and its members continue to work towards Net Energy Buildings and he will be discussing the path to achieving these results. Don't miss this important meeting on March 13th.

The following week the chapter will be traveling south to Macon to hold a dinner meeting on March 20th. Hoy Bohanon will discuss using ASHRAE 62.1 using multiple space equation that is required by code in many areas. He will discuss the practicality of the equation and how to use it properly. Please make the less than two hour drive south for this important meeting and support our Macon Section. Please RSVP to cccalloway@bellsouth.net.

This month we will focus on research promotion. We look forward to recognizing our sponsors of our chapter. Each dollar raised by the chapter is used to further research funded by ASHRAE. Without your help the society cannot continue to provide all of the valuable standards used every day in our world. If you have not already done so please contact John Pruitt to make a donation to ASHRAE at John.D.Pruitt@jci.com.

I look forward to seeing you at our next chapter event.

Getting from AEDGs to Zero-Energy Buildings

February Lunch Meeting

Mr. Drew Crowley, ASHRAE Fellow and Distinguished Lecturer

Dr. Crowley leads the development of software for building performance and sustainability at Bentley Systems. Prior to joining Bentley Systems in 2010, he led the U.S. Department of Energy's team working to achieve cost-effective net-zero energy commercial buildings by 2025 and was responsible for managing the DOE's building energy software tools development activities including EnergyPlus and the Open Studio plugin for Google SketchUp.

Lunch Meeting: 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM

Speaker: Mr. Drew Crowley

Location: ASHRAE Headquarters, 1791 Tullie Circle NE, Atlanta, GA 30329

Cost: $10.00 Members / $20.00 Non Members RSVP

You MUST RSVP if you plan to attend the meeting. Please email secretary@ashraeatlanta.org. Also, you can prepay and RSVP at <http://www.ashraeatlanta.org/Events>. This helps the chapter accurately order food from the catering company.

Description:

Buildings account for nearly 40% of U.S. energy use. ASHRAE, IESNA, USGBC, AIA, and DOE have collaborated on a series of Advanced Energy Design Guides (AEDGs) for 30%+ energy savings beyond Standard 90.1-1999. The guides provide prescriptive packages for each climate zone to reach the 30% energy savings. The AEDGs are accepted for points toward LEED-NC certification (instead of simulation). Recent studies have shown that it is possible today to achieve a zero-energy building but they are costly. This presentation provides an overview of the AEDG process as well as examples of packages and case studies from each guide. Also presented are examples of today's zero-energy buildings and a number of activities to aggressively move buildings to substantial energy savings over the next few years.

Educational Seminar: 1:30 PM – 4:00 PM

Speaker: Mr. Drew Crowley

Location: ASHRAE Headquarters, 1791 Tullie Circle NE, Atlanta, GA 30329

Cost: $50 per person

You can prepay and RSVP at <http://www.ashraeatlanta.org/Events>.

Description:

The Educational Seminar will be a more in depth discussion regarding Advanced Energy Design Guides and how we will attain Net Zero Buildings.

Meeting Emphasis on Research Promotion

During each meeting we focus on a specific aspect of the chapter's involvement. This meeting's emphasis will be on Research Promotion. Thank you to all the members who supported ASHRAE this past year and continue to support ASHRAE this year. The Members on the following donor page will be recognized at this month's chapter meeting. More details can be found later in this newsletter. As you may or may not be aware money raised for ASHRAE Research Promotion supports the following items and more:

- Funds thousands of projects addressing such topics as sound, duct design, the effect of oil in refrigerants, load calculations, thermal conductivity, simplified energy analysis procedures, weather data, refrigerant property data, fire and smoke control, and solar design
- Funds papers in the ASHRAE Journal
- Supports updates to the annual volumes of the ASHRAE Handbook.
- Supports updates to the Society's standards and guidelines, which provide uniform methods of testing for rating purposes by suggesting safe practices for design and installation and by providing other information which may serve to guide the industry. There are currently more than 100 ASHRAE standards and guidelines.
- ASHRAE supports student research through grants-in-aid to graduate students conducting research in subjects related to the HVAC&R industry

All funds raised through the research promotion effort go directly to research projects and contributions range from a few dollars to more than $25,000. So Donate What Your Can Today:

Chapter Information

How to Join ASHRAE?

Go to <http://www.ashraeatlanta.org/> to start the process, click “Membership” on the horizontal menu bar. On the pull down menu, click “Join”. Enter your email address in the box “Verify your E-mail status”. A prospective member will then be directed to enter his or her email information. As a new member, your address will not be recognized, and you will be invited to “Register Now”. After you complete registration, you will be directed to the Individual Information page where you can finally select “Join ASHRAE”!

Prospective members under 30 years of age may consider the Affiliate Membership, which starts at only $50/year! This year we have received very few membership advancement applications. I encourage each of you to check your membership status. You may be an Associate Member, but if you are a PE or have at least 15 years of HVAC experience, you may be eligible to upgrade to a Member. It does not cost you any money. You just need to fill out bio-data online and inform ASHRAE. The “Update Your Bio” menu option is located on the left hand side of the “Member Central” panel on the ASHRAE home page.

TOPIC:

► How to Apply the ASHRAE Standard 62.1 Multiple Spaces Equation

Use of the multiple spaces equation is now a code requirement in many areas and is a requirement of LEED for any new building that uses multiple space ventilation systems. Why is the equation there? How do you use the equations? What are the two options? Does the system approach make a difference in the quantity of outdoor air required? This presentation presents answers and discussion points for these important questions.

PRESENTED BY:

Hoy Bohanon, PE, LEED AP is director of the Carolinas region of WorkingBuildings. WorkingBuildings is a professional services firm whose primary service offering is commissioning for high performance buildings. Mr. Bohanon began his engineering career as a research and design engineer, and then gained experience as a project engineer, facilities engineer, facilities manager, indoor air quality research engineer, environmental engineer, and business owner. He has a master's degree in engineering from North Carolina State University, and a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from Georgia Institute of Technology.

Mr. Bohanon has written technical papers and articles on indoor air quality, operations, and maintenance and is a frequent presenter at technical society meetings. He was recently appointed to the ASHRAE Standards Committee and is a recipient of the ASHRAE Distinguished Service Award. He is a member of ASHRAE Standard 62.1 committee, Ventilation for Acceptable Indoor Air Quality, serves as program chair for SSPC62.1 and TC5.5 Air-to-Air Energy Recovery. He is chair of the US Technical Advisory Group panel 1 (general principles) and panel 4 (indoor air quality) for ISO TC205 Building Environment Design. He served on the project committee that wrote The Indoor Air Quality Guide: Best Practices for Design, Construction and Commissioning for EPA/ASHRAE/AIA/BOMA/SMACNA/USGBC. He also teaches Complying with Requirements of ASHRAE Standard 62.1-2007 for the ASHRAE Learning Institute. Mr. Bohanon actively serves on committees of the Professional Engineers of North Carolina, the Winston-Salem Chamber of Commerce, US Green Building Council, and the Triad Early Action Compact.

Atlanta ASHRAE May Outing (in April)
Tuesday, April 24th, 2012
Georgia vs. Georgia Tech Baseball @ Turner Field

We'll be having our traditional May Outing a little early this year (Tuesday, April 24th). Once again, we'll be gathering for the Spring Classic baseball game to benefit Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. Come see a great college baseball rivalry between two traditional national baseball powers, the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets and Georgia Bulldogs.

The special Atlanta ASHRAE member ticket price is only $5. That's a $7 savings from the actual ticket price! Not only, do you get entrance to the game for that price, but we'll also be tailgating in the Turner Field "Green Lot" with a BBQ dinner (Please BYOB) that is included with your ticket price.

Please purchase your tickets (limit 6 per Atlanta ASHRAE member) via the Atlanta ASHRAE website at <http://www.ashraeatlanta.org/>. Select the "View ALL Events" and then select "May Outing". Tickets will be handed out at the tailgate.

This 9th Annual Spring Classic benefits Children's Healthcare of Atlanta! More than 24,000 tickets were sold to the event last year at Turner Field making it one of the largest NCAA baseball games in history. The 2011 event raised more than $200,000 for CHOA.

If you have any questions, please contact Glenn Northrup @ 678-736-5102 or gnorthrup@georgiaairassociates.com.

We look forward to seeing everyone there to celebrate a great ASHRAE year under the leadership of Charlie Fischer and his board from the Atlanta ASHRAE Chapter!
